If you have no insurance, SmileWorkshop created its own plan to cater to you.

NEW OFFICE OPENING IN FORT WORTH

And now for the best news! SmileWorkshop is bringing its sought-after dental experience to Greater Fort Worth and nearby communities. The new office, located at Beach St. and Basswood, is scheduled to open in December, 2014.

"We're excited to continue our expansion with an office in Fort Worth, and to improving the health, appearance, self-confidence and overall quality of life of each of our patients," said Dr. Chris Swayden, owner and founder of SmileWorkshop, P.L.L.C.

THE STORY BEHIND SMILEWORKSHOP

Prior to entering dental school, Dr. Chris Swayden knew he wanted to become a dentist and open a practice that offers what people really want, not just what was easiest for him to provide. For this Amarillo native, there's no such thing as comprehensive services with a list of caveats, or convenience that meets you half-way. "We look at everything from a patient's perspective," Dr. Swayden said. "We strive to meet and exceed your immediate needs, and anticipate your future requirements. In addition to comfort and a modern office equipped with the latest technology, SmileWorkshop is uniquely designed to be a complete, single resource for your dental health. Instead of referring you elsewhere or having a general dentist try to be everything to everyone, we bring in dental specialists who perform work in-office and tailor services to our patient's individual needs."

GIVING BACK, HELPING OTHERS

Dr. Swayden and his partners, Dr. Justin Ashton and Dr. Kyle Jepsen, are dedicated to serving others and helping those less fortunate. Dr. Ashton has completed mission trips to Guatemala, Dr. Jepsen has been on mission trips to Brazil and Jamaica, and Dr. Swayden, to Brazil. SmileWorkshop is also involved with local school systems in the communities they serve, and has made numerous charitable contributions. For example, they support Shrine Circus, a special event that helps kids by "giving them a reason to smile." Dr. Swayden and partners have joined forces to start The Smile Workshop Foundation, a non-profit organization created to give those less fortunate "all the reasons to smile!"
